Situation in 1900

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Constables and training</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• By 1900 police pay was still relatively poor.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Constables received no training and no women were allowed in the police force</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Communication / transport / records</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• Police officers used a whistle to communicate with each other.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• They walked the beat – up to 20 miles a day.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• Few real records were kept</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Specialist units / policing techniques</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>• There were 180 local police forces.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>• The Criminal Investigation Department was set up in 1877</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>